My Lunch With Tariq by Rabbi Joel Mishkin

I recently met Tariq Sharif for lunch. Tariq has been the representative of the Old Bridge Islamic Mosque at our annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Service. Since I came to Old Bridge, we have had gatherings at our synagogue and a variety of nearby churches. However, we have never had the Mosque as our host in the ten years that I have been the rabbi at Congregation Beth Ohr. When Alice Brown, who helps plan our service, told me about the Mosque's invitation I wanted to meet with Tariq and learn more about his denomination of Islam and have the chance to get to know him better.

Suffice it to say, it was a most positive lunch. Before we spoke about the details of the upcoming service, we had a chance to share our own personal stories. Tariq is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He, his wife and two children, practice Ahmadiyya Islam, a strain of Islam that is progressive and welcoming. They have lived and worked in New Jersey for many years.

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community is part of a global network with branches in over 200 countries and its membership is in tens of millions. It is a peace-loving community that believes in and acts upon its principle of 'Love for All, Hatred for None,' a principle that reflects the essence of Islam. I have invited Tariq to attend our Friday evening service on September 20th on Zoom so that he might tell us a bit more about his faith and about the plans for this year's Thanksgiving Service. With all of the ongoing tensions and challenges in the Middle East, a strong attendance by the members of our community at this year's gathering would signal that we are interested in maintaining good relations with our Islamic neighbors in Old Bridge. We also believe that the Interfaith Service can be a collaborative and positive event as members of various faiths and faith practices come together to learn more about each other and to give thanks for community fellowship.

I hope many of you will choose to join us for both the September 20^{th} service and the Interfaith Service.

The Jewish Federation in the Heart of New Jersey is holding a Community event to remember the horrible attack on Israel by Hamas on Sunday, October 6th. Congregation Beth Ohr is one of 22 Jewish organizations supporting this event as we approach the one-year anniversary. You should have received an email from the Federation about this program, and you must register for this event in advance.

The High Holiday Season is only five weeks away, and we will gather in our beautiful sanctuary to celebrate and pray together. I urge you to join us in person this year in the Synagogue to experience the spiritual feeling of Community. The Yizkor Book letter and Registration forms for High Holiday Seats were mailed to you. The High Holiday raffle, a Fundraising event, has been cancelled, but another Fundraiser will be planned in its place. Zahava Fried is excited to join us again as our High Holiday Cantor. She will be conducting two Zoom sessions before the High Holidays to teach us new tunes. These sessions are planned for Tuesday, September 17th, and Tuesday, October 8th, at 11:00 AM.

The Gala Journal event, our main fundraiser, will take place on Sunday, October 27th starting at 11:00 AM. We will be celebrating the ten-year Anniversary of our Religious leader and friend, Rabbi Joel Mishkin. We will be honoring members Cheryl & Lee Cadel, and Roberta Karpel, for their outstanding service for the Synagogue. Please support this major fundraiser by attending in person and putting an ad in our Journal. Reach out to businesses you support and solicit a tax-deductible ad from them.

Shalom

Phil Rabinowitz
